ANROWS

AUSTRALIA'S NATIONAL RESEARCH ORGANISATION FOR WOMEN'S SAFETY

to Reduce Violence against Women & their Children

Research, Knowledge Translation & Exchange

ANROWS
1. Knowledge production
2. Knowledge translation and exchange
3. Leadership
Knowledge translation and exchange

• Process of translating knowledge in ways that facilitate the uptake of evidence in policy and practice
• Developed in the health sector
• Potential uses in VAW sector:
  • educational
  • client-mediated interventions
  • organisational interventions
  • linkage and exchange interventions
BSCW Knowledge translation and exchange

• Translate knowledge - facilitate information sharing (what we learned):

• Processes:
  • Linkage and exchange interventions
  • Publications- web, journals, local media, local resources
  • Events- community/jurisdiction/national

• Potential uses in local communities and VAW sector
  • Improved service co-ordination
  • Organisational changes
KTE process

Graham, I. et al. (2006)
Modified by CIHR 29/09/2015
http://www.cihr-irsc.gc.ca/e/29418.html
Adapted from Gauthier, B. (in press)
KTE strategies

- Compass reports
- Notepad
- Practitioner Engagement Group
- Public events
- Workshops
- Webinars
- Infographics
- Posters
- Photographic exhibitions
- Learning modules
- Enhanced guidelines
- Case studies
KTE Strategies

Social media & videos

The speakers asked for questions and comments from the floor in response to a series of prompts they provided. They sought feedback about how to better address intersectionality.

Events

- Translating Violence Against Women Knowledge into Action
  - Lessons from Canada
  - Hosted by ANROWS
  - Speakers: [Images of speakers]

- Health Impact of Domestic & Family Violence on Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Women
  - [Images of ANROWS logo and other images]
Further resources

- Website: anrows.org.au
- Newsletter: anrows.org.au/subscribe
- Twitter: @ANROWS
- YouTube.com: anrowsorgau